

NIFTY (Weekly)

The week that went by:

With the sharper correction in the preceding week, Index continued its journey towards the south and started the week on a pessimistic note as Index tried to hold its previous low of 10254 but failed to correct by 90 points. On day 2, post the flat opening Index surged higher but failed to hold the same slipped in the first trade itself. Efforts of trimming the losses vanished due to sell-off in the last session. On Wednesday, continuing pessimistic trend along with weak global market, Nifty kicked off the day with gap-down opening. Index tried to stabilize around 10150 but bears took control for the rest of the day. Index has violated 10100 level but managed to close above the same. On Thursday, trespassing the losing streak, Nifty started the day on a strong note with gap-up opening. With the help of buying in IT and Banking stocks, Nifty continued to extend its gains throughout the day. On the last day of the week, Index kicked off the day on the strong note post the up gradation by Moody's on long term bonds, till afternoon Index remained range bound but profit booking in the last session dragged the Nifty lower.

All indicators poise for up move.
