

NIFTY (WEEKLY)

The Week That Went By:

In a truncated week, Indian bourses kicked off the day on a firm note with 25-30 points gap-up opening. Due to lack of follow through, Index erased all its opening gains but recovered in the mid-session; however next round of selling took place in the last session. On day 2; following the weak global trade, Indian Market followed in the same manner with a gap-down opening of nearly 30 points. V shape recovery has been seen as after the weak opening, Index trimmed its losses and with the sharp short covering across the board and extended its gains in the second half of the trade. On a monthly expiry day, Following the strong rebound in US and Asian markets, D-street kicked off the day on a strong note but remained range bound throughout the day. On the last day of the week, post the strong opening; Index oscillated in the range throughout the day.
